

AD HOC ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- a. The activities and events shall not be any of those which are not allowed:
 - Any form of product promotion and sales (e.g. product launches, car displays, road shows, auctions, etc.)
 - Events and/or activities related directly or indirectly to religion
 - Events and/or activities related directly or indirectly to politics
 - Events and/or activities that affect social or racial harmony
 - Events and/or activities that pose any risk to public order, safety or health

- b. As no NRTOL fee will be charged for the event/activity, no exclusive rights will be accorded to the event/activity organiser for the use of the space.

- c. Should there be two (2) or more group of users, all parties are strongly encouraged to co-exist and share the space as is reasonably possible.

- d. You may write in to us to check whether there are prior bookings made for the requested date. URA does not guarantee the availability of the space.

- e. Users are required to abide by standing regulations and policies related to your activity/event.

- f. URA shall not be held liable for any claims, costs, proceedings or actions whatsoever arising out of or in connection with any damage to the property or injury of life arising from the use and occupation of the State Land.