

6 & 10 LORONG 29 GEYLANG

*Shanghai Kong
Ming Travel Trunk
Mfr. (Pte) Ltd., 1988*

Originally built as residences, this pair of pre-war bungalows was for many years the premises of a luggage company before they were accorded conservation status in 1991 and subsequently restored for residential use in the mid-1990s.

The Art Deco style bungalows are characterised by the use of geometric shapes in the design of the casement and transom windows as well as in the moulded plaster relief representation of a torch on the column capitals.

An opening specially created in the new development at the front of the site ensures that at least one of the two bungalows remain visible from the street.
